

AFRO-LATIN AMERICA

REPRESENTATION,
POLITICS, HISTORY

A SERIES OF LECTURES & DIALOGUES
WINTER-SPRING 2021

Wednesday January 13 at 12:00 pm CT
Black Politics in Latin America Today
Juliet Hooker (Brown University)
Roberto Zurbano (Writer & Activist)
Erica L. Williams (Spelman College)

Tuesday January 26 at 12:30 pm CT
Phases of Blackness:
Afro-Argentines, Anti-Blackness,
and Argentina's National Identity
Erika Edwards
(University of North Carolina at Charlotte)

Tuesday March 9 at 12:30 pm CT
Arrivance and the Anti-Poetics of Diaspora:
Alonso de Sandoval as testimoniante
for the Christian West
Jerome Branche
(University of Pittsburgh)

Tuesday April 13 at 12:30 pm CT
"We Don't Want to Live on the Margins of the Margins": Black Women Claiming Space in Unequal Brazilian Cities
Keisha-Khan Y. Perry
(Brown University)

Wednesday April 21 at 3:30 pm CT
Afro-Latin American Studies and its Institutionalization
*Michele Reid-Vazquez, George Reid
Andrews (University of Pittsburgh)*
Edmund T. Gordon (University of Texas)

Tuesday May 11 at 12:30 pm CT
Questioning the Racial Thermometer:
Black Intellectual Vanguard and their
Arguments for Equality in Colombia, 1885-1948
Francisco Javier Flórez Bolívar
(Universidad de Cartagena)

FULL EVENT DETAILS

lacs.northwestern.edu/events

CO-SPONSORS

Department of African American Studies
Andean Cultures & Histories Working Group